Double Negatives

Two negative words used in the same sentence is called a double negative. In a sentence, only one negative word is needed to express a negative idea.

example of a double negative: I don't need no new clothes.

However, double negatives can be fixed. Simply remove one of the negative words from the sentence, or change one of the words into a positive.

example of a correct sentence: I don't need any new clothes.

Read the sentences below. Choose and circle the correct word in parenthesis. Be sure you don't create a double negative sentence.

1. There aren't ( any, no ) cookies left to eat.
2. I didn't do ( nothing, anything ) over the weekend.
3. My dad can't find ( anywhere, nowhere ) to park the car.
4. There isn't ( no, any ) time left to go to the supermarket before it closes.
5. Emma said she didn't need ( either, neither ) of those ingredients to make cupcakes.
6. The mission was so top secret that Evan couldn't tell ( nobody, anybody ) about it.
7. I can't wait until Saturday because I haven't ( ever, never ) been to a concert before.
8. The store didn't have ( none, any ) of the presents I was looking for.
