②

In 1451, Christopher Columbus was born in Genoa, Italy. He had many brothers and sisters. His family did not have a lot of money.

When Columbus was a young man, he worked on ships. He sailed around the Mediterranean Sea. Once he tried to sail to England, but he got shipwrecked in Portugal.

③

In 1486, Columbus met Queen Isabella of Spain. He told her that he wanted to sail west across the Atlantic to find the East Indies in Asia.

There were lots of expensive spices and gold in Asia. Columbus promised to bring them back for the queen if she would help pay for his ships' claim.

④

Queen Isabella purchased three ships for Columbus. He named them the Niña, the Pinta, and the Santa María. Columbus hired about 90 sailors to help with the voyage.

The Santa María was larger than the Columbus and his crew sailed across the Atlantic Ocean. The voyage was long and frightening for the sailors. They were at sea for 70 days.

On October 12, 1492, Columbus and his crew saw land! They had landed on an island and met friendly Native Americans. Columbus believed he had sailed around the world to the East Indies. He did not know that he had discovered a whole new part of the world.

While exploring the islands of the New World, the Santa María struck a reef and was badly damaged. It could no longer be sailed. There wasn't enough space in the two small ships for all 90 sailors to return to Spain.

Some of the sailors stayed in the New World and formed a new community. Columbus and the rest of the crew sailed the Niña and the Pinta back to Spain.

The crew took the Santa María apart and used the lumber to build a fort. The fort provided the crew a safe place

Columbus was excited to tell Queen Isabella about the land and the

When he returned to Spain, Columbus did not have gold or spices to give the queen. Instead, he brought back things from the New World that people in Europe had never seen before.

Columbus made three more trips to the New World before he died in 1506.

He presented the queen with pineapples, turkeys, tobacco, and hammocks. He even brought back some Native American people.

Today, people in the United States remember Columbus with a national holiday. Columbus Day is celebrated each year on the second Monday in October.
