

Gas

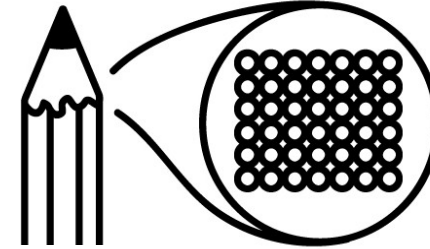

The atoms in a gas are spread out and move freely.

Liquid

The atoms in a liquid are close together. They slide around.

Solid

The atoms in a solid are packed closely together. They bond to each other and do not change shape.

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.