

Legislative Branch ^①

Senator Congresswoman

The Senate and House of Representatives make up the

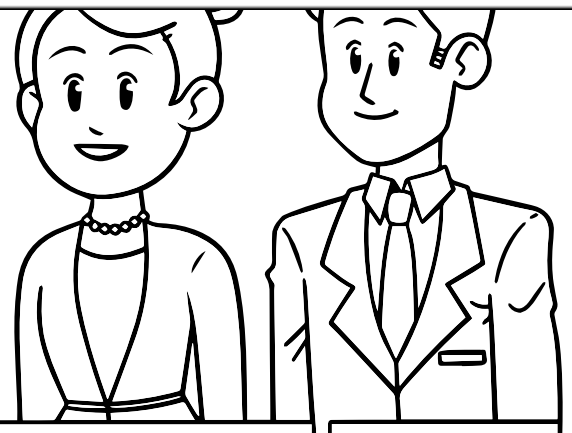

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Supreme Court Justices

The Judicial Branch is headed by the Supreme Court, which consists of 9 justices. Their duty is to interpret the laws to decide if they are constitutional.

Vice President President

The President leads the Executive Branch with the Vice President and Cabinet assisting. It is the President's duty to make sure the laws are being enforced.