Oh, Canada!

by Nikki Aksamit

Anthony jumped off the school bus and raced through the front door, leaving his jacket, shoes and backpack in a trail behind him.

"Mom, Mom, Mom!" he called. "Guess what we studied in school today?"

Anthony's mom had been cutting celery to go with some peanut butter for his afternoon snack. Smiling at his excitement, she stopped what she was doing and asked "What did you study?"

"Like what?" Anthony's mom asked.

"My teacher says that Canada produces tons of wheat and fish, like salmon. He also said that a lot of movies and some TV shows are filmed up in Canada. He says that many celebrities, like actors and singers come from Canada too!"

His mom was smiling again as she put Anthony's snack in front of him.

"My teacher asked who we thought was the most important and influential person who came from Canada."

"Oh, and who would that be?" his mom asked, sitting down on the chair beside him.

"I told him it was you, Mom!" Anthony said with a big grin as he bit into the celery.
