Chapters 6 - 10

1. What three things happened on Nick and Janet's walk home from school?

- Janet found a fancy, gold ballpoint pen
- Nick suddenly understood what Mrs. Granger was saying
- Instead of saying pen he said frindle

2. How did Nick put his plan into action at the Penny Pantry store?

The next morning he put his plan into action by asking the woman at the Penny Pantry store for a frindle. When she was unsure as to what it was, he pointed to the pens and asked for a black frindle. Different students continued to ask for frindles until it became clear that a frindle was a pen.

3. Instead of "cheese" what did the 5th grade kids say and do when their class picture was being taken? Why did the picture have to stay that way?

Instead of saying cheese, all the fifth grade students said frindle and held up their pens. The picture had to remain like that because the photographer was out of film and could not do a retake.
