

Sit and Set

The words sit and set sound very similar but have different meanings.
The verb sit means to be seated or cause someone else to be seated.
example: We all sit at the table.

The verb set means to place something somewhere.
example: I set the book on the shelf.

Write the word sit or set on each blank line to correctly complete the sentences.

5. Mr. Singh _____ his cup on the table.
6. Ash's mom asked him to _____ the dishes in the sink.
7. Ms. Liu told us to _____ quietly during the assembly.
8. Mrs. King said to _____ our pencils down when we finish the test.
9. You _____ at the third desk from the door.
10. You may _____ your glass on the counter.

Sit and Set

The words sit and set sound very similar but have different meanings.
The verb sit means to be seated or cause someone else to be seated.

example: We all sit at the table.

The verb set means to place something somewhere.

example: I set the book on the shelf.

Write the word sit or set on each blank line to correctly complete

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

