One snowy afternoon, Mom picked up Eve from school. When they reached home, they raced inside.

"Snow, snow, snow." Mom stomped her boots and shook snow off of them. "I'm tired of snow. I miss sunshine. I miss flowers. I miss birds."

"I know," Eve said. "But I love snow. I think I'll play outside for a while." She ran back outside.

Eve had fun in the snow with her friends. They threw snowballs. They built snow forts. They made snowmen. Then Eve felt cold and came back inside.

"Here you go," Mom said. She handed Eve a mug of hot chocolate.

"I love hot chocolate!" Eve took a sip and smiled.

Mom smiled and left.
