

Name: _____

Double Bubble Map

Example of a Double Bubble Map

A double bubble map is used to compare and contrast two items, topics, or ideas. They are placed in the two large, bolded circles. Things they have in common are written or illustrated in the inner circles that connect to both bold circles. Things unique to them go in the outer circles that connect to only one bolded circle.